ALL OFFICIAL BONDS LOWERED

BOND OF COUNTY AND PRECINCT OFFICERS-ELECT FIXED.

The County Commissioners Believe the Limits of Reason Were Exceeded Heretofore-Other Business

For the next two years the county as sessor of Salt Lake will be under bond in the sum of $15,000, instead of $300,000 as heretofore, for the performance of his duties according to they. The bonds of all county and precinct officers-elect for the ensuing term were fixed yesterday by the board of county commissioners, and while all were reduced in amount from one-fifth to four-fifths, none were freated so considerately as was Assessor Quinn. The commissioners deemed the guaranties given by the rediring officers excessive, and directed by remountion reductions to bring the respective sums within what the located deemed the limits of rosson. The bonds of the commissioners will remain ta horetofore, at $10,000 arch.

The following table shows the amounts of bonds required under the old ordinance and the new schedule:

Officers.

New Bond, Old Bond.
County Treasurer ... $50,000 $50,000

County Sheriff 92,090 25,880
County Sheriff 92,090 25,880
County Recorder 15,600 35,500
County Surveyor 5,000 5,500
Precinct Justices 200 2,500
Precinct Constables 500 2,500
Precinct Constables 500 2,500
Road Supervisors 500 1,890
The board appointed Dr. F. E. Straup district health officer for Binsham. A part of Dr. Straup's duties will be to advise Deputy Sheriff Heaston as to the extent of abolishing unsanitary nubsances in the canyon.

On recommendation of the state board of health, Inspector Sorenson was detailed till Dsc. 15 to gather statistics pertaining to orchard disinfecting and prune evaporation.

Road Supervisor Practor of Union showed that he had been unjustly accused by Charles Denny of compelling him to work out polf tax when Denny claimed to be physically incapacitated, and also of having unduly discriminated in favor of his relatives in the matter of giving employment on road work. The board exonerated the accused road supervisor and adjourned till Monday.
